Three charismatic, internationally revered cantors conduct master classes and lectures on nusach, improvisation and repertoire for the Sabbath and the High Holidays that will inspire professional and lay cantors and prayer leaders. The public will be able to hear them all in concert.

An unrivalled opportunity for practicing chazanim and ba'alei t'fila as well as lay leaders, choirmasters, choristers and congregants from the UK and across Europe to meet colleagues, brush-up, refine and broaden skills and learn new music guaranteed to enhance services – and make the cantorate relevant to today's congregations

Special guest: Alexander Tsaliuk, conductor of the Moscow Male Jewish Capella

Convention sessions Tuesday to Thursday 3 - 5 July 10.00am–6.00pm, Fees: £235, Students £135

All sessions at Prestwich Hebrew Congregation, Bury New Road, Manchester, M25 9WN .

Stay over for a musical Shabbat 6/7 July featuring the guest chazanim.
